ParshaQuest
Breisheet בראשית

The creation of the universe is described day by day, ending with the creation of the Day of Rest – Shabbat. The Torah continues with Adam and Chava in Gan Eden, including Chava's encounter with the serpent in which she and Adam ate the fruit of the Eitz HaDa'at Tov v'Ra, which led to the expulsion of Adam and Chava from Gan Eden. Kayin and Hevel offer sacrifices to Hashem, and Hevel's sacrifice is accepted while Kayin's is rejected. This brings Kayin to kill Hevel, and Kayin is then banished to a lifetime of wandering the earth. The parsha goes on to list the first 10 generations of humanity (from Adam through Noach), and describes the way humankind's relationship with Hashem becomes worse over time.
